Red Kettle Campaign:

The red kettles and bell ringers are perhaps the most visible program during the holidays. Volunteers man kettles from the day after Thanksgiving through Christmas. Most of the unit's funds are received through this campaign.

Christmas Assistance:

The Salvation Army partners with The Virginian-Pilot Joy Fund, Marine Corps Reserves Toys for Tots and Operation Blessing to provide toys and food for families needing assistance.

Back To School Clothes:

In 2012, a new program was started that helped 62 families buy school clothes for their children. The program was a huge success. There were also 20 backpacks containing school supplies given to a local church to provide to children in need.

During the fiscal year 2012-2013, The Salvation Army has contributed to Accomack County by providing funds for the following emergency services:

- ✦ Electricity
- ✦ Eye exams
- ✦ Food cards
- ✦ Heat
- ✦ Emergencies (Fire, etc.)
- ✦ Rent
- ✦ Back to school clothes
- ✦ Christmas assistance
